John L. Tye Stresses Advantages to the Defendant in Being Present When a Verdict Is Read.

ASSERTS THAT JURORS MIGHT HAVE CHANGED

Peoples Scores Mob as Cowardly—Says That It Would Have Been Easy for Frank to Be Present.

"We are attacking this verdict as being 'old,'" said Attorney John L. Tye yesterday afternoon before Judge Ben Hill in the arguments which he made in support of his motion to set aside the verdict of guilty in the Frank case. "It is not an irregularity, not a discrepancy," he continued. "It is a void verdict. This is a constitutional guarantee that the right of a man to be present at the time the verdict is delivered against him is not trifling nor frivolous. It is a constitutional guarantee that must be fully observed if we are to have law and order in our land."

At the opening of the proceedings Friday morning, Solicitor Dorsey moved to demur to the motion to set aside the verdict which had been filed by John L. Tye, of the law firm of Tye, Peoples & Jordan. His argument occupied all of the morning session, and lasted until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Cites Legal Authorities.

Mr. Dorsey cited various authorities of legal authority bearing on his argument. Speaking from behind a barricade of law books, he kept a number of assistants constantly bringing new volumes and carrying others away.

When the hearing adjourned at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, two arguments had been heard and a third was in progress. The argument of Henry Griffin, of counsel for the defendant, will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morning. Most of the early part of his speech had been devoted to citing legal authorities.

Mr. Dorsey dwelt at length upon the grounds in the case of the defendant, as set forth in the indictment, and asserted, with much emphasis, that the defendant was not present at the time the verdict was rendered.

He declared that Judge Hill's decision in the case of the defendant was a widespread application of the present move to free Frank. He said the verdict, if not set aside, would be a precedent for the future. He said that Judge Hill would not set aside the verdict in the case of the defendant, but he would set it aside in the case of the defendant, if the defendant was not present at the time the verdict was rendered.

Violation of Pledges Charged.

Mr. Dorsey accused Frank's attorney of violating the pledges in the question of waiver of presentment. He said that the defendant was not present at the time the verdict was rendered, and that the defendant was not present at the time the verdict was rendered.

"It has been decreed," said Dorsey, "that the defendant is to be present at the time the verdict is read. The defendant is to be present at the time the verdict is read. The defendant is to be present at the time the verdict is read."

He said nothing about it at the motion to set aside the verdict, and he said nothing about it at the motion to set aside the verdict. He said nothing about it at the motion to set aside the verdict, and he said nothing about it at the motion to set aside the verdict.

With these final words, the solicitor resumed his seat. Attorney Tye began his argument with a reply to Mr. Dorsey's remarks upon the delay of the motion to set aside, and an explanation of counsel's action in this respect—likewise, a defense of the issue. This motion is not a technical character, he asserted. "It is founded constitutional right, and it is founded by the constitution of the state of Georgia and of the United States."

"It is not trifling with the courts. It is merely an attempt to restore the personal rights and privileges that are due every American citizen."

Three Years Allowed.

"Three years is the statutory time allowed to file a motion to set aside a verdict. It is according to the common law and practice. A motion may be made at any time within these three years. It is up to you to delay upon the merits of the motion. The delay of time is insignificant."

"The right is inviolate for an accused man to face the jurors and hear them say whether or not they stick to their verdict. It is a constitutional right. There is an element of mental telepathy that enters into it. There is no telling what a juror in his heart does when he gives a verdict and unwillingly looks the eyes of the accused man."

"At least one man—unless he be guilty in his decision—is likely to change. I know of a case recently decided in the Georgia case of the State v. Blackley—the case of the State v. Blackley—where eleven jurors were on their verdict, but one man refused. A second trial was granted, and the prisoner was finally convicted."

"Little did Judge Ross realize that, when he acceded to the waiver of Frank's presence, he was denying Frank one of the most important guarantees of constitutional protection."

PANAMA COLONISTS MAY SOON LOCATE IN SUMTER COUNTY

America, Ga. June 5.—(Special).—That the 200 Panamas colonists desiring location in Georgia will be brought to Sumter county seems certain in view of the fact that the colonization committee has just purchased options upon the Huguenin plantation, near Americus, containing 5,000 acres. The committee authorized to effect the purchase came here recently accompanied by C. P. Jackson, agricultural representative of the Central railway, and carefully inspected the Huguenin lands.

One hundred and fifty thousand dollars the price put upon the Sumter plantation now owned by Carolina investors.

WHITNEY AND ROTAN MEETS AT BALCONY

Atlanta Boy Golfer Defeats Texas Champion in Semi-Final Round 4 Up and 3 to Play.

ROTAN WAS THREE UP AT END OF SIX HOLES

Adair Came Back—Nelson Whitney Eliminated Record Maker Jacoby 4 Up and 3 to Play.

Memphis, Tenn., June 5.—Perry Adair, a 15-year-old Atlanta youth, will meet Nelson Whitney, veteran of many a hard-fought tournament fight and three times amateur champion of the south, in the final round tomorrow for the 1914 championship of the Southern Golf association.

Adair won his match in the semi-final round by a score of 4 up and 3 to play; and Whitney, holder of the title, was defeated by a score of 4 up and 3 to play. The match was played on the golf course at the Hotel Hamilton, and was a most interesting one.

The playing of the youthful Georgian over Rotan today was sensational. He drove with the accuracy of a veteran, his approach shots were almost perfect, and his putting was consistent. On the other hand, Rotan, who towered over him, was completely out of his mind. He doubled his hole in the first, and again he was defeated. He booked his approach shots repeatedly and in putting was very poor.

In the other match Whitney was defeated by a score of 4 up and 3 to play. He played a cautious game, and was seldom in danger. The Dallas man was out on his nerves, and his approach shots frequently were bad, sometimes falling short and sometimes being over.

Rotan Gets Early Lead.

Large galleries followed both matches, with probably the largest crowd watching the play of Adair and Rotan. The match between the two boys was a most interesting one.

Adair, took the boy on the first hole, and the crowd gave him a hurrah for the plucky youngster, the women leading in the cheering.

In the morning, round Rotan and Adair played a most interesting match. Rotan taking the lead on the third, Adair overran his hole on the fourth, and the crowd gave him a hurrah. He made a 3 to 4, and the sixth, 4 to 6.

Adair, took the boy on the seventh, 3 to 4, and the sixth, 4 to 6. He made a 3 to 4, and the sixth, 4 to 6.

Adair, took the boy on the eighth, 4 to 6, and the ninth, 4 to 6. He made a 3 to 4, and the sixth, 4 to 6.

Adair, took the boy on the tenth, 4 to 6, and the eleventh, 4 to 6. He made a 3 to 4, and the sixth, 4 to 6.

Adair, took the boy on the twelfth, 4 to 6, and the thirteenth, 4 to 6. He made a 3 to 4, and the sixth, 4 to 6.

GOOD COTTONS IN THE BELT

This Report Caused the Market to Close Weak at Decline—Corn Higher at the Close.

Chicago, June 5.—Auspicious fall conditions in the cotton belt and Canadian wheat belt today more than offset bullish reports from Europe and Argentina. In consequence, the market was closed easy at the same as last night to 1/4¢ lower. Corn worked up a 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ higher; oats off 1/4¢, and provisions down.

It was clear and hot, as if made to order, when the market opened, and winter crop states. On the other hand, the heavy rainfall in the cotton belt throughout the spring crop region allayed the apprehensions of a dry season. Selling pressure was the result.

Strength was the rule in corn, the market being closed at the same as last night to 1/4¢ higher. Oats were weak because of rains in the cotton belt and a further upturn of drought damage.

The following were prices on the Chicago exchange today:
